Quote for April!

“O, how this spring of love resembleth
The uncertain glory of an
April day,
Which now shows all the beauty of the sun,
And by and by a cloud
takes all away!”

— William
Shakespeare, The Two Gentlemen of Verona

a History Lecture

by Dr Orla Fitzpatrick (National Museum)

'From Cavan to Kansas: the Whitfield family's album of migration from Ireland to North America'

This illustrated talk will follow members of the Whitfield family from the townland of Donge, Cootehill to Kansas. The photo album was compiled by Annie Whitfield in the 1910s and shows her and her family in Cavan before her emigration to Kansas City where she nursed during the 1921 small pox epidemic. The album provides a great picture of life on a small farm and the adventures of a young migrant.

The Late Patsy McConnell

Staff at Cavan County Libraries was very sad to hear of the passing of Patsy McConnell, Ashe St, Cavan. Patsy was an avid reader, a daily visitor to Cavan Library on Farnham St., and indeed was certainly one of the longest living patrons.

His kindly and gentle manner endeared him to all the library staff down through the years. He died just 1 month short of his 90th birthday and is survived by his wife Theresa and daughter Mary.
