Quote for September!

Your mind is the garden,
your thoughts are the seeds,
the harvest can either be flowers or weeds.

-William Wordsworth

Let's Celebrate Oíche Chultúir / Culture Night Friday 16th September

Leabharlanna i Coill an Choillaigh agus i Muinchille

Nuala Hayes a renowned storyteller will regale children at Bailieborough and Cootehill Library with her large repertoire of stories. This bilingual session is an interactive event and the children will be invited to join in.

Poems for 2016

National Library of Ireland Exhibitions for Cavan

In an initiative designed to make collections more accessible and available to a wider audience, the National Library and the National Photographic Archive make certain exhibitions available in travelling format. Two of these exhibitions will be on display in Cavan Libraries!

'Tall Tales and Deadly Drawings' celebrates children's books, storytelling and reading. This exhibition will be on show at Bailieborough Library!

'Ireland From Maps' introduces basic mapping concepts and terminology as well as exploring the subtext behind some of the most well known maps of Ireland. This exhibition will be on show at Cootehill Library.

Both exhibitions will be of particular interest to primary school children and will be on display from Friday September 23rd to the end of October. All welcome!

Welcome Back to the Schools!

Cavan County Council's Library Service is committed to supporting the education of our primary school students. We look forward to working with principals and teachers across the county to ensure that all children have access to library resources. We are delighted to offer an updated version of both 'Classroom Novels' and 'Encouraging Reads' with newly added titles specially selected by staff! Post-primary students may avail of a wide range of research options for projects. Our librarians are always available to assist you with your research requests!
