Quote for September!

“Without culture, and the relative freedom it implies, society, even when perfect, is but a jungle. This is why any authentic creation is a gift to the future.”

— Albert Camus,

Cavan Celebrates Culture Night 2020

Culture Night is an annual all-island public event that celebrates culture, creativity and the arts. This year, it will take place on Friday 18th September 2020. Whilst our country is still under restrictions due to COVID 19, Cavan has risen to the challenge to produce a very impressive programme of events for the night!

Cavan County Library Service is delighted to announce that 3 of the branches will host Culture Night events.

Bailieborough Library will host an exhibition of images by Breffni Photography Club. This will be launched by An Cathaoirleach, Sarah O'Reilly, between 4pm-6pm.

Cootehill Library will host an exhibition of paintings by Cootehill Painting Circle, and this will be opened at 5.15pm-6.30pm.

Johnston Central Library presents online 'Fairfolkcast Meets Archivist Jonny Dillon' Archivist Jonny Dillon of the National Folklore Collection features in an episode of the Fair Folk podcast, produced and hosted by Danica Boyce 8-8.30pm.

'Cavan Day' to celebrate County and its Diaspora

The first-ever 'Cavan Day', an online celebration of the Global Cavan Family, its people, its diaspora and everyone who shares an affinity with the county, whether through culture, education, business, tourism or friendship, takes place on Saturday 26th September.

While the much-anticipated 'Cavan Calling' homecoming festival has been postponed until 2021 due to coronavirus, the inaugural Cavan Day will allow Cavan people around the globe to show their Cavan colours and their pride in their home county, by taking to social media and celebrating Cavan using the #CavanDay hashtag

On the day, a special 'Cavan Day' show will broadcast live on Cavan TV and on YouTube, with interviews with some of the Breffni County's best-known figures across the world of sport, arts, food, and business, along with messages from Cavan people around the globe.

Right to Read Award 2019 for Cavan County Council

Cavan County Council is pleased to announce that it has received the Right to Read Champions Award for 2019, which recognises its commitment to the promotion of literacy skills through various initiatives such as 'Spring into Storytime', Summer Stars Reading program, services to schools, Children's Book Festival, and Family Day.

The Right to Read action plan is implemented nationally in each local authority, based on the national guidelines, to create and maintain an environment aware of literacy needs and one which supports and leads on literacy development throughout the local authority.

The delivery of the Right to Read programme in Cavan is led by the dedicated staff of Cavan County Library Service.

Centenary Lecture Series with Cavan Library Service

Autumn 2020 Starting 17th September

Speakers: Dr Sinéad McCoole, Dr Brian Hughes, Fr. Ultan McGoochan, Dr Darragh Gannon, John Dorney and Dr Mary McAuliffe.

Topics include:

Arva Gun Raid; Women and Violence; The IRA in Great Britain; Activity in Pre-border counties and Ballykinlar's Internment Camp.

Celebrating the Decade of Centenaries 2020, Cavan Co Library presents a series of six online lectures on Thursdays at 7.30pm starting on September 17th

Our first speaker is Sinéad McCoole who will discuss Cavan Women in the Campaign of Independence; and on Thursday September 24th Dr Brian Hughes will examine The September 1920 attack on Arva RIC barracks and its consequences.

The lectures are free to all and may be accessed on Facebook at Cavan County Library Service or go to www.cavanlibrary.ie.

Thanks to all our avid readers who took part in the SummerStars adventure this Summer, and congratulations to all our competition winners. Please remember to collect your certificate of achievement at your local library!

We wish the very best of luck to all our teachers, school staff and pupils on the return to school for the academic year of 2020/2021, and we look forward to offering our continued support!

As Always Families and Children are Very Welcome in Cavan Libraries

However to ensure safety, children under 12 years must be accompanied by an adult when visiting their local library.
