“It is both relaxing and invigorating to occasionally set aside the worries of life, seek the company of a friendly book... from the reading of ‘good books’ there comes a richness of life that can be obtained in no other way.”
– Gordon B. Hinckley

Summer Reads Spotlights

We are delighted to include contributions from several authors as part of our Summer Reads initiative. The ‘author spotlights’ features on our Face Book pages every Wednesday and Saturday at 10am for the month of July and concluding on August 14th.

For August we can look forward to Eimear Lawlor, Claire Fuller, Fiona Scarlett and Padraig O’Healaí, all who have submitted videos describing their books, and expressing their delight at being included. Pick up a copy of Cavan Library Summer Reads 2021 at your local library.

Cavan County Council's Decade of Centenaries

(((▶))) Cavan History Podcast Series

Episode No.2 7.30pm 5 August 2021

'The Irish Grants Committee'

'The Irish Grants Committee was established in the 1920s to compensate people who had suffered as a result of their Loyalism. The Cavan applicants to this fund reveal much to us regarding their stories and how they viewed themselves and their place in a new political landscape. In this episode of Cavan History, Brendan Scott talks to Dr Daniel Purcell about this fascinating resource and the stories it contains'
