Christmas Message from Cavan County Library Service

Co Librarian
Emma Clancy

2020 has been challenging for all of us. Though our Christmas break may look different this year, may we all take time to celebrate, count our blessings, and spend time with loved ones.

Ba mhaith liom buíochas a ghabháil libh as bhur dtacaíocht uilig i gcaitheamh na bliana eisceachtúla seo dúinn ar fad.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support during the past year. I would also like to acknowledge the tremendous work carried out by our wonderful library staff, who have proven once again to be a most creative, adaptable, and resilient group. We look forward to welcoming you back in the coming months when we will be delighted to introduce a number of new and enhanced services.

On behalf of the Cavan Library Team, we wish you a very Merry Christmas and here's to a Happy New Year!

Guíonn muid beannachtaí na Nollag agus na hAthbhliana oraibh uilig!

Cavan County Library Celebrates Family Time

Families all over Ireland are encouraged to engage with their local library during the month of December.

Family Time at your Library on Saturday December 5th 2020 is a special day to support the involvement of the whole family in children's reading. The day will feature a number of online events which are sure to inspire creativity in homes across the county.

The online workshops include 'Elf on the Shelf' musical interaction with Mobile Music School; Am Teaglaigh (family time) gaeilge/béarla storytime and drawing with author and performer Muireann Ní Chíobháin; and a Creative Dance session with a professional dancer from the Dublin Youth Dance Company.

This Family Time at your Library day is part of the national Right to Read programme. The aim is to increase awareness of the benefits of reading and promote our library service as an invaluable resource for the whole community.

All events are FREE and tickets may be reserved through Eventbrite. All details are available at www.cavanlibrary.ie and Facebook and Twitter.

Countdown to a Cracker of a Christmas!

Follow Cavan County Library on Facebook for daily treats during December including: staff story time, Christmas workshops, recommended Christmas reads and fun for all the family. We have plenty in store for you in the build up to Christmas to get all the family in the festive mood!

Science Festival fun with pupils from Killinkere N.S.

Cavan Monaghan Science Festival 2020

Cavan Monaghan Science Festival has certainly been a very different Science Festival this year, but one which attracted a huge level of interest!

The public events streamed in the evening time were very well received with over 20% of the events being viewed as a family. Live events and workshops were beamed into schools in Cavan and Monaghan which resulted in with almost 18,000 children being able to participate in science week.

This Christmas will be different for all of us! Why not grab the opportunity to get all the Family reading over the festive period, or snuggle up together to watch some Christmas DVDs?

Your local library has a huge collection of Christmas books and DVDs to suit all the family, including Christmas decorating and cooking.

Visit your local Library to-day before they are all gone!

Happy Reading Everyone! Ho! Ho! Ho!
