

ART OF LIFE

“Art of Life” cross border project is led by Creative Cavan and aims to normalise conversations around planning for death and dying using creative approaches. Cavan County Council’s Library Service, Libraries NI, Irish Hospice Foundation, and Compassionate Communities NI are partners in delivering this Creative Ireland Shared Island initiative.

Creative workshops, planning ahead and thinking ahead workshops are being delivered this autumn in Counties Cavan, Tyrone and Fermanagh. A selection of the workshops are included. These workshops will be creative and enjoyable and aim to get you thinking and talking in a positive way about end of life. We all plan for weddings and holidays so we should plan for end of life yet many of us never do so.

For more information on this project contact: Sharon Howe, Creative Communities Engagement Officer, Cavan County Council or visit <https://www.cavanlibrary.ie/creativecavan>
