For the New Year

May I have the courage today
To live the life that I would love,
To postpone my dreams no longer
But do at last what I came here for
And waste my heart on fear no more.

(from "A Morning Offering" by John O'Donohue)

Happy New Year to All our Patrons from Cavan County Library Service!

Drop into Your Local Library!

Cavan Library Service is inviting you to drop in, relax, explore, connect, work or learn at your local branch library. Put it on your to-do list for the New Year.

Please drop in and enjoy the space and services, take time out with a book or a newspaper; look into events or culture; meet friends or family; catch up on work or study, use the computers and Wi-fi, or just drop in for a chat. We would be delighted to see you!

1922-2022: A Century of Change

Part 1 & 2

This oral history project marks the centenary of the formation of the Irish Free State (Saorstát Eireann). It records and catalogues the testimony of individuals who themselves, or their immediate families, have helped to create the vibrant Ireland in which we live and work today.

New Virginia Civic Centre

Significant progress has been made on a new flagship Civic Centre in Virginia, which will comprise a new library, additional theatre space at the Ramor Theatre, and a shared multipurpose civic events space - both indoor and outdoor - to cater to the needs of all services located therein and the broader community.

The project is being funded by the Rural Regeneration Development Fund, through the Department of Rural and Community Development, with further funding to be provided from Cavan County Council's own resources.

Many years of planning have gone into developing the plans, and Cavan Library staff are really excited by the prospect of a new state of the art Library in the county.
