“August rain: the best of the summer gone, and the new fall not yet born. The odd uneven time.”

- Sylvia Plath, The Unabridged Journals of Sylvia Plath

Summer Stars Reading Initiative at Cavan Libraries

The Summer Stars Reading Initiative continues at Cavan Libraries and many of our readers have already reached their reading target and received a certificate of achievement. It's not too late to sign up for the programme, which keeps your child reading over the summer thus improving literacy and reading skills!

Some of our 'Summer Stars' pictured below – well done everyone!

New Website for Cavan Library!

We have a new website for Cavan Library Service where you can easily find all the information about our services including upcoming events, online library services, access your library account, local history and much much more. The site is user friendly and packed with information for all our members. Just go to www.cavanlibrary.ie

Cavan Library Service in association with Cavan County Council's Historian-in-Residence programme presents the Centenaries Lecture Series 2022

'Arthur Griffith: a Centenary Perspective'

by Professor Michael Laffan University College Dublin

For long a neglected figure, in recent decades Griffith has begun to receive the appropriate attention due to a remarkable and paradoxical man. He was a hard-headed nationalist, lifelong journalist, a brilliant propagandist, a reluctant but ultimately successful politician and Cavan TD. He was key figure in the foundation of the Free State, hated by Home Rulers and distrusted by Republicans. Often vilified, he and his achievements are now widely respected.
